ICADV 24-hour
toll-free hotline

- Available nationwide
- Provides emotional support
- Assists victims with violent crime compensation information
- Assists victims with criminal justice support, legal advocacy, shelter referrals and information on emergency health care and counseling

In addition to providing direct services to victims, the toll-free hotline, which receives nearly 3000 calls a year, is a valuable resource for gathering domestic violence statistics throughout Indiana.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE is the leading cause of serious injury to women, more common than rape, muggings and car crashes combined.

(Stark and Flitcraft, 1985)

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE is more than a bruised face or broken arm. It includes:

- Physical Abuse – slapping, kicking, choking, spitting, punching, pinching;
- Sexual abuse – forced sexual activity, sexual assault, sodomy;
- Emotional abuse – humiliation, intimidation, name calling, demoralization, playing mind games, isolation;
- Financial abuse – limiting access to family income or assets, restricting or disrupting employment.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE victims are more than just statistics. They are your co-workers, neighbors, friends or family. They have names: Alex, Nicole, Miguel, Renee, Sena, Tamika, Ryan, Michelle...

The Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence is committed to the elimination of domestic violence. It provides support to a statewide network of domestic violence programs that offer shelter and services for victims.

Incorporated in 1980, ICADV offers leadership, guidance and support in all 92 Indiana counties by:

- providing public awareness, training and education;
- advocating for systemic and societal change;
- influencing public policy and the allocation of resources;
- educating and strengthening coalition members;
- promoting the availability of comprehensive services.
