

The Purple Ribbon has become a symbol of peace and support for those who have survived the violence.

The ribbon represents commemoration for those who have not been so fortunate and of hope that together, we can work to end this violence which claims thousands of lives each year.

The Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence invite you to wear a ribbon to celebrate the success of a survivor or in memory of a friend or family member who has been lost to domestic violence.

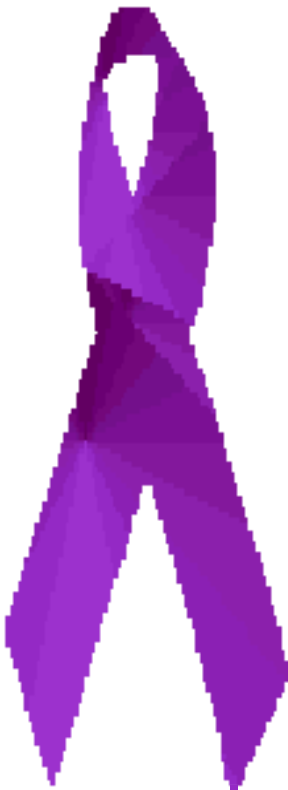

24 Hour Crisis Line: 1-800-332-7385

www.violenceresresource.org

The Purple Ribbon has become a symbol of peace and support for those who have survived the violence.

The ribbon represents commemoration for those who have not been so fortunate and of hope that together, we can work to end this violence which claims thousands of lives each year.

The Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence invite you to wear a ribbon to celebrate the success of a survivor or in memory of a friend or family member who has been lost to domestic violence.

24 Hour Crisis Line: 1-800-332-7385

www.violenceresresource.org